Description

The COYOTE[®] Closure is craft-friendly, affordable, reliable and durable, the COYOTE Closure ensures long-term reliability and quality of voice, video and data signals. Plus, it's tested in accordance with Bellcore Testing Requirement GR-771-CORE. Its compact size disguises its storage capacity. At just 22" long, 6.0" and 8.5" in diameter, it can store up to 288 or 576 fiber splices respectively. After over ten years of field use and several hundred thousand units sold, the original COYOTE Closure still remains one of the most highly regarded and widely used fiber optic closures in the industry.
